Notice of Data Breach

Dear John Sample,

We are writing to inform you of a recent incident involving your personal information, which we previously raised to you. We take the security and privacy of information in our care seriously. We apologize for any inconvenience this incident may cause.

What Happened?

On February 2, 2018, we learned that some of our Coaches received the wrong IRS Form 1099-MISC (1099). We immediately investigated the incident and discovered that due to an error, a small number of the 1099s were mis-mailed, and went to an incorrect Coach.

What Information Was Involved?

You are receiving this notice because your 1099 information was sent to an incorrect Coach. The information in your 1099 included your first name, last name, and only the last four digits of your social security number.

What We Are Doing?

We have already taken additional measures including verification procedures to prevent an incident like this from occurring again. To further address this situation, we are offering one year of identity protection services, at no cost to you. The services will be provided through ID Experts, a well-regarded provider of these services. The services include: 12 months of credit monitoring, and fully managed identity theft recovery services.
