Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<Name 1>>:

Benchmade Knife Co., Inc. (“Benchmade”), is writing to inform you of a recent event that may impact the privacy of some of your payment information. We wanted to provide you with information about the event, our response, and steps you may take to better protect against the possibility of identity theft and fraud, should you feel it is necessary to do so.

What Happened? On October 10, 2018, Benchmade began investigating suspicious activity occurring on their website, www.benchmade.com. Benchmade immediately launched an investigation and began working with third-party forensic investigators to determine the nature and scope of the event. On November 9, 2018, the investigation determined that an unauthorized party was able to obtain Benchmade customer payment card information entered between September 1, 2018, and October 10, 2018. This incident may affect customers who completed online purchases and those who began transactions but did not complete the sale.

Benchmade next took steps to confirm the identities of customers whose payment card information was impacted. On or around November 28, 2018, we confirmed the identities of the individuals who completed online transactions.

Since the event was discovered, we have been working with third-party forensic investigators to determine what happened, what information was potentially affected and to implement additional procedures to further protect the security of customer information. You can safely use your payment card at our website.

What Information Was Involved? Through the ongoing third-party forensic investigation, we confirmed on November 9, 2018, that unauthorized parties were able to obtain credit or debit card data from some transactions initiated at www.benchmade.com between September 1, 2018, and October 10, 2018. The information at risk as a result of the event includes the cardholder’s name, address, credit card number, expiration date, and CVV.

What We Are Doing. We take this incident and the security of your information very seriously. Upon learning of this incident, we immediately shut down our website and eliminated the source of the unauthorized access. As part of our ongoing commitment to the privacy of personal information in our care, we are continuing to review our existing policies and procedures and to implement additional safeguards to further secure the information in our systems. We also notified state regulators, as required.

What You Can Do. You can find out more about how to protect against potential identity theft and fraud in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Prevent Fraud and Identity Theft. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of fraud by reviewing your account statements regularly and keeping a close eye on your credit card activity. If you see any suspicious activity, please report it to the bank that issued your credit card. Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus.

For More Information. If you have additional questions, please call our dedicated assistance line at 1-877-565-6275, between the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. You may also write to Benchmade Knife Co., Inc., at 300 Beaver Creek Road, Oregon City, OR 97045.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience or concern this incident has caused.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mike Ulwelling". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a prominent initial "M" and a long, sweeping underline.

Mike Ulwelling
Vice President of Marketing & Sales
Benchmade Knife Co., Inc.

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO BETTER PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your credit reports for suspicious activity. Under U.S. law you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

You have the right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a security freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a security freeze, please contact the major consumer reporting agencies listed below:

In order to request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below:

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, security freezes, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting the consumer reporting agencies, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General.

The Federal Trade Commission can be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.identitytheft.gov, 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For North Carolina residents, the Attorney General can be contacted at 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001, 1-877-566-7226 or 1-919-716-6400, www.ncdoj.gov.
