Dear <First Name> <Last Name>:

The Boy Scouts of America (“Boy Scouts”) is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of the personal information it maintains. Regrettably, we are writing to inform you of an incident involving some of that information.

On May 4, 2017, we learned that information of a participant in the 2013 National Scout Jamboree was potentially accessible via the Internet. We immediately began an investigation, including hiring a leading forensics firm. Our investigation determined that certain information entered into the online registration portal for the 2013 National Scout Jamboree by a small number of participants was potentially accessible via the Internet through a discrete search on a search engine using very specific terms contained in the information. This information includes your name, address, date of birth, and the health condition information you provided in the 2013 Jamboree registration. The information did not include any of your financial information, Social Security number, or driver’s license number.

Once we learned of this incident, we immediately removed the information from our website and requested that search engines delete any links or cached information related to your personal information. We have no evidence that any of your information has been used in any way. However, we wanted to advise you of this incident and assure you that we take this very seriously. For steps you can take to protect yourself, please see the information that follows this letter.

We deeply regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may have caused you and apologize for any inconvenience. To help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, we have taken steps to enhance the security of our systems. If you have any questions, please call me at XXX-XXX-XXXX, Monday through Friday, during normal business hours.

Sincerely,
