Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name >>,

We are writing to tell you about a data security incident that occurred at Total Quality Logistics, LLC that may have exposed certain of your personal information to unauthorized intruders.

What Happened and What Information was Involved

On Sunday, February 23, 2020, we discovered that there had been unauthorized access to two of our external facing web applications, which compromised the security of our online portals for customers and carriers. Unauthorized users gained access to certain customer/carrier information, including email addresses, first and last names, bank account information, mobile phone numbers, tax ID numbers/social security numbers, and internal customer ID numbers. We do not have any evidence of information that this information has been used fraudulently.

What We Are Doing to Protect You

Our systems have been thoroughly vetted, and any vulnerabilities that were attacked have been repaired. Our systems were put through vigorous penetration testing by our IT teams and a third-party vendor, and we continue to work with an expert cyber security firm to ensure there are no additional vulnerabilities. Further, federal law enforcement (SS and FBI) has been notified and we are working with our internal fraud and theft prevention teams as well as a third-party expert to investigate.

In order to help relieve any such concerns and restore confidence following this incident, we have contracted with NortonLifeLock, Inc. to make available at no cost to you for one (1) year its LifeLock Defender™ Choice solution. Recommended Steps to Help Protect Your Information

It is recommended that you remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing credit card account statements and monitoring your credit report for unauthorized activity.

You can obtain information from the Federal Trade Commission about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. The FTC can be reached at:

Federal Trade Commission
Consumer Response Center
600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Washington, DC 20580
1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338)
www.ftc.gov/idtheft

Fraud Alerts: You can place fraud alerts with the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via their websites. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three credit bureaus is below. Placing a fraud alert does not damage your credit or credit score. Additional information may be obtained from www.annualcreditreport.com.

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant and monitor your accounts for suspicious or unusual activity.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency. You may make that request by certified mail, overnight mail, or regular stamped mail, or by following the instructions found at the websites listed below. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. The consumer reporting agency may charge a small fee to place, life, or remove a freeze, but is free if you are a victim of identity theft or the spouse of a victim of identity theft, and you have submitted a valid police report relating to the identity theft incident to the consumer reporting agency.

You may obtain a security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:
