

TIPS FOR SAFEGUARDING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION:

1. As noted above, we have arranged for you to enroll, at no cost to you, in an online three-bureau credit monitoring service (My TransUnion Monitoring) for two years provided by TransUnion Interactive, a subsidiary of TransUnion, one of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To enroll in this service, go to the TransUnion Monitoring website at www.transunionmonitoring.com and in the space referenced as "Activation Code", enter the following unique 12-letter Activation Code [REDACTED] [REDACTED] follow the simple three steps to receive your credit monitoring service online within minutes.
  - If you do not have access to the Internet, as an alternative, you may enroll in a similar offline paper based three-bureau credit monitoring service, via U.S. Mail delivery, by calling the TransUnion Fraud Response Services toll-free hotline at 1-855-288-5422 and when prompted, enter the following 6-digit telephone pass code: [REDACTED] You can sign up for the online or offline credit monitoring service anytime between now and June 30, 2019. Due to privacy laws, we cannot register you directly. Please note that credit monitoring services might not be available for individuals who do not have a credit file with TransUnion, or an address in the United States (or its territories) and a valid Social Security number.
  - Once you are enrolled, you will be able to obtain two years of unlimited access to your TransUnion credit report and credit score. The daily three-bureau credit monitoring service will notify you if there are any critical changes to your credit files at TransUnion, Experian and Equifax, including fraud alerts, new inquiries, new accounts, new public records, late payments, change of address and more. The service also includes up to $1,000,000 in identity theft insurance with no deductible. (Policy limitations and exclusions may apply.)
2. Review all your account statements thoroughly and promptly.
  - You should report any incidents of suspected identity theft to the relevant financial services provider and/or to local law enforcement.
3. Remain vigilant over the next twelve to twenty-four months.
4. Request and review credit reports from each nationwide credit bureau noted below.
  - Once you receive your reports, review them for suspicious activity, such as inquiries from companies you did not contact, accounts you did not open, and debts on your accounts that you did not authorize.
  - Verify the accuracy of your social security number, address (es), complete name and employer(s).
  - Notify the credit bureaus if any information is incorrect in order to have it corrected or deleted. To obtain free credit reports, simply visit <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/index.action>, call 1-877-322-8228, or complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form, which can be found at <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0093-annual-report-request-form.pdf>, and mail it to:

Annual Credit Report Request Service
P.O. Box 105281

- 5. Special note for minors affected by this incident: The same services referred to above may not be available to affected minors. As an alternative, parents/legal guardians can check to see if your child may be a victim of identity theft by using TransUnion's secure online form at www.transunion.com/childidentitytheft to submit your information so TransUnion can check their database for a credit file with your child's Social Security Number. After TransUnion's search is complete, they will respond to you at the email address you provide. If they locate a file in your child's name, they will ask you for additional information in order to proceed with steps to protect your child from any impact associated with this fraudulent activity.
