NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear <Recipient's Name>.

I am writing to inform you of a security incident involving our electronic medical record system provider.

What Happened?

On August 22, 2016, we received confirmed notice from our electronic medical record provider that their electronic system was subject to a malware attack on July 26, 2016. They became aware of the incident on July 27, 2016, and we are informed that they promptly took action to secure their systems.

We immediately requested further information to understand what happened and to determine which, if any, of our patients were affected. On September 14, 2016, we were provided further detail of the events, and learned that the company, Marin Medical Practice Concepts, Inc. (MMPC), experienced a ransomware infection.

Ransomware is a type of malware which restricts access to the computer system that it infects, and demands that a ransom be paid to the creator of the malware to remove the restriction. The third party forensic IT firm hired to investigate this incident found no evidence that patient information was viewed, transferred or accessed. However, during the restoration process of their system, MMPC has informed us that one of their backup systems failed causing the loss of consultation notes between July 11, 2016 and July 26, 2016. Given these events, we wanted to notify you of this matter.

What Information Was Involved?

The electronic medical record system contains your full name, address, telephone number, date of birth, social security number (if provided to us), medical history, prescriptions, diagnoses, and insurance and health visit information.

If you visited us between July 11, 2016 and July 26, 2016, those visits' consultation notes were lost in the recovery process. This information only included what was gathered during the visit: vital signs, clinical history, documentation of your physical examination, and any records of the communication between us. The results of any diagnosis testing you received were not affected and you do not need re-examination. Importantly, we are able to recreate the notes from the records restored.

What We Are Doing:

Upon confirmation of this incident, we are notifying you of the breach. Further, we have followed up on the steps taken by MMPC and received confirmation that they have notified law enforcement and secured their network.

What You Can Do:

Though there is no evidence that patient information was viewed, transferred nor accessed, given the breadth of information on the system, I understand you may want to call the three major credit agencies and place a 90 day fraud alert on your accounts. If so, their contact information is:

Equifax P.O. Box 740241 Atlanta, GA 30374 1-888-766-0008 https://www.alerts.equifax.com/AutoFraud_Online/jsp/fraudAlert.jsp	Experian P.O. Free credit reports are also available every year from each of these three agencies at: www.annualcreditreport.com

For More Information:

The protection and privacy of your information is a top priority in my practice. After 20+ years of close relationships with my patients, I have no words to express how devastating it is to have had this happen. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at toll free number 844-723-9341; or by mail at 619 East Blithedale, Suite A, Mill Valley, CA 94941.

Sincerely,

For residents of Massachusetts:

It is required by state law that you are informed of your right to obtain a police report if you are a victim of identity theft.

For residents of all states:

Fraud Alerts: You can place fraud alerts with the three credit bureaus at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three credit bureaus is below:

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant and monitor your accounts for suspicious or unusual activity.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to send a request to each consumer reporting agency by certified mail, overnight mail, or regular stamped mail. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. The consumer reporting agency may charge a fee of up to $5.00 to place a freeze or lift or remove a freeze, but is free if you are a victim of identity theft or the spouse of a victim of identity theft, and you have submitted a valid police report relating to the identity theft incident to the consumer reporting agency. You may obtain a security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:
