Dear Sample A Sample:

Farmers & Merchants National Bank of Nashville is committed to protecting the confidentiality and security of personal information. We are writing to inform you about an incident that may involve some of your information. This notice explains the incident, measures that have been taken, and some steps you can take in response.

We recently concluded our investigation into an email phishing incident. Upon learning of the incident on February 13, 2020, we immediately took steps to secure the accounts and launched an investigation, and a leading cyber security firm was engaged to assist us. Our investigation determined that an unauthorized person accessed certain employees' email accounts on February 13, 2020. The investigation was not able to determine which emails and attachments were actually viewed by the unauthorized person(s). We therefore conducted a thorough review of the contents of the email accounts and, on May 15, 2020, we determined that an email or attachment contained some of your information, including your impacted elements.

Although we have no evidence that any of your information has been misused, we wanted to let you know that this incident occurred and assure you that we take it very seriously. You should always remain vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing your free credit reports for any unauthorized activity. We also remind you to review your financial account statements closely and to report any unauthorized activity to your financial institution. Please see the pages that follow this notice for additional steps you may take to protect your information.

We sincerely regret that this incident occurred and apologize for any inconvenience or concern caused by this incident. To help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, we are re-educating employees regarding phishing emails. If you have any questions, please call (877) 715-8889, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. CST, and Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. CST

Sincerely,

Stephen J. Greene

Fraud Alerts and Credit or Security Freezes:

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.
