Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear Sample A Sample,

We write on behalf of Hasbro, Inc. or one of its subsidiaries for which you performed services to inform you of an issue that we believe may have involved access to your personal data. We believe this was a targeted incident that was motivated by someone trying to access specific entertainment content that happened to be stored on certain shared network folders where your personal data was also stored. We have no evidence at this time that your personal data has been misused by any unauthorized parties, though we are sending this letter to you in an abundance of caution to provide you with information regarding what happened and additional steps we are taking to protect your personal data.

Your trust is of paramount importance to us, and we deeply regret any inconvenience this incident may cause you.

What Happened?

We became aware beginning on or around May 20, 2018 that an unauthorized party obtained access to certain of your personal data in shared network folders on Hasbro servers. The unauthorized access in question occurred between September 15 and 18, 2017.

When we first became aware of the potential for unauthorized access in certain shared network folders, we quickly retained legal and forensic experts who launched an investigation. We also promptly informed and cooperated with federal law enforcement to investigate and to take steps designed to avoid such unauthorized access in the future.

Vigilance with respect to reviewing account statements and credit reports may help reduce fraud or identity theft. Any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft may be reported to the proper law enforcement authorities, including local law enforcement, your state's attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You may contact the FTC or your state's regulatory authority to obtain additional information about avoiding and protecting against identity theft: Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft. Fraud Alerts: There are two types of fraud alerts that you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud: an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for at least 90 days. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by contacting any of the three national credit reporting agencies at the toll-free numbers listed below:

Equifax
877-478-7625

Experian
888-397-3742

TransUnion
800-680-7289

Credit Freezes: You may have the right to put a credit freeze on your credit file so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. In addition, you may incur fees to place, lift, and/or remove a credit freeze. Credit freeze laws vary from state to state. The cost of placing, temporarily lifting, and removing a credit freeze also varies by state, generally $5 to $20 per action at each credit reporting company. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Since the instructions for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information.
