Dear: «Contact_First_Name» «Contact_Last_Name»;

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that Humana was the target of a sophisticated cyber spoofing attack that occurred on Humana.com and Go365.com. Your personal information on these websites may have been accessed by the attackers. As part of our investigation, Humana has notified the Department of Homeland Security and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

On March 20, 2017 Humana became aware of a significant increase in the number of secure log in errors that were the result of numerous attempts to log into Humana.com and/or Go365.com from foreign countries. Humana Cyber Security Operations blocked the offending foreign Internet Protocol (IP) addresses from the websites on March 20, 2017.

A new and significantly increased volume of log in attempts to Humana.com and/or Go365.com on March 22, 2017 suggested that a large and broad-based automated attack had been launched. This was evidenced by the volume of log in attempts coming from foreign countries. The nature of the attack and observed behaviors indicated the attacker had a large database of user identifiers (IDs) and corresponding passwords that were being inputted with the intention of identifying which might be valid on Humana.com and/or Go365.com. The excessive number of log in failures strongly suggests the ID and password combinations did not originate from Humana. Based on the facts, Humana has determined this to be an identity spoofing event. Identity spoofing refers to the action of assuming (i.e., taking on) the identity of some other entity (human or non-human) and then using that identity to accomplish a goal, such as use of stolen / spoofed authentication credentials to impersonate a user.

Humana blocked a majority of foreign addresses by March 23, 2017, as the attacker shifted the origin of the attack beyond the countries where it began. On March 24, 2017, the attack origin was repositioned once again to United States based IP addresses.

Humana has implemented controls such as forcing a password reset, deploying new alerts of successful and failed logins and locked accounts as well as deploying a series of technical controls to enhance web portal security.

Humana has determined there is no evidence that any data was removed from Humana systems and Humana Cyber Security Operations continues to monitor the situation.

Your Humana account may have been compromised during these attacks. We would like to stress that your Social Security Number was not disclosed as a result of this incident as it is not available for display in Humana web portals. The attackers may have gained access to your information on humana.com and/or go365.com, which includes medical, dental and vision claims, spending account information and biometric screening information.

We encourage you to review other websites where you have log in accounts and consider changing your password for those accounts. We also encourage you to vary your log in ID and password across all your web and mobile application accounts.

At our expense, to safeguard your information from potential misuse, we have partnered with Equifax® to provide its Credit Watch™ Gold with 3-in-1 Monitoring identity theft protection product for one year at no charge to you. A description of this product is provided in the attached material, which also contains instructions about how to enroll (including your personal activation code). If you choose to take advantage of this product, it will provide you with a notification of any changes to your credit information, $1 million Identity Fraud Expense Coverage and access to your credit report. We strongly encourage you to enroll for this free service to protect yourself from the potential misuse of your information.

We want you to know that at Humana we take seriously our responsibility to ensure the security of your information. We regret any concern this may cause. You have privacy rights under a Federal law that protects your health information. Humana must follow this law to protect you. It is important for you to know you can exercise these rights, ask questions about them, and file a complaint if you think your health information has not been protected.

Humana respects your right to file a complaint with us or with the Department of Health and Human Services through the Office of Civil Rights at:

In addition, the Federal Trade Commission suggests the following steps if you believe your identity has been stolen.

1. Place a fraud alert on your credit reports and review your credit reports. Contact the toll-free fraud number of any of the three consumer reporting companies below to place a fraud alert on your credit report. You only need to contact one of the three companies to place an alert. The company you call is required to contact the other two companies.

* Equifax 1-800-525-6285
www.equifax.com
P.O. Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374-0241

* Experian 1-888-EXPERIAN or 1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com;
P.O. Box 9532, Allen, TX 75013

* TransUnion 1-800-680-7289
www.transunion.com
Fraud Victim Assistance Division,
P.O. Box 6790, Fullerton, CA 92834-6790

Once you place the fraud alert, you are entitled to order free copies of your credit reports.

2. Carefully review your credit reports. Look for inquiries from companies that you haven't contacted, accounts that you did not open, and debts on your accounts that you can't explain. Be aware that some companies may bill under names other than their store names.
3. Close any accounts that you know, or believe, have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.
4. File your concern with the Federal Trade Commission. This important information helps law enforcement agencies track down identity thieves. You can contact the Federal Trade Commission at 1-877-ID-THEFT, (1-877-438-4338) or by visiting the Federal Trade Commission website at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or write Identity Theft Clearinghouse, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

Even if you do not find any signs of fraud on your credit reports, experts in identity theft recommend you check your credit reports every three months for the next year.

For residents of Maryland: You may also obtain information about identity theft prevention from the Maryland Office of the Attorney General:

Check for any medical bills that you do not recognize on your credit reports. If you find anything suspicious, call the credit reporting agency at the phone number on the report. Keep a copy of this notice for your records in case of future problems with your medical records. If you are a California resident, we suggest that you visit the web site of the California Office of Privacy Protection at www.privacy.ca.gov to find more information about your medical privacy.

Review the Explanation of Benefits statement or SmartSummary that you receive from Humana. If you see any service that you believe you did not receive, please contact Humana at the number on the statement.

Fraud Alerts: You can place an initial alert or an extended alert on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for at least 90 days. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by calling the toll-free fraud number of any of the three national credit reporting agencies listed above.

Credit Freezes (for Non-Massachusetts Residents): You may have the right to put a credit freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may also incur fees to place, lift and/or remove a credit freeze. Credit freeze laws vary from state to state. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency.

You can obtain more information about fraud alerts and credit freezes by contacting the FTC or one of the national credit reporting agencies listed above.

Credit Freezes (for Massachusetts Residents): Massachusetts law gives you the right to place a credit freeze on your consumer reports. A credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. Using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. The credit reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee of up to $5 to place a freeze or lift or remove a freeze, unless you are a victim of identity theft or the spouse of a victim of identity theft, and have submitted a valid police report relating to the identity theft to the credit reporting agency.

If you have any questions or need any help with anything mentioned in this letter, please contact us at 1-866-4ASSIST (1-866-427-7478). If you have a speech or hearing impairment and use a TTY, call 1-800-833-3301. In addition, please notify our Privacy Office if you believe your information is being used (e.g. identity theft) by another party so that we can work with you and law enforcement officials to promptly investigate the matter.

Again, please accept our sincere apology for this incident. We value your membership and work hard to protect your information.

Sincerely,

Jim Theiss, Chief Privacy Official

Directions for placing a Fraud Alert

A fraud alert is a consumer statement added to your credit report. This statement alerts creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report as well as requests that they contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. Once the fraud alert is added to your credit report, all creditors should contact you prior to establishing any account in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit file, visit: www.fraudalerts.equifax.com or you may contact the Equifax auto fraud line at 1-877-478-7625, and follow the simple prompts. Once the fraud alert has been placed with Equifax, a notification will be sent to the other two credit reporting agencies, Experian and Trans Union, on your behalf.
