

Community Informed Risk

Assessment In Cases of Intimate Partner Violence

Join the Montana Department of Justice, judges, attorneys, law enforcement and victim advocates from across the state in learning more about a collaborative effort to reduce intimate partner homicide through the identification of certain risk factors. A multidisciplinary group of experts from the National Domestic Violence Fatality Review Initiative will introduce the Arizona Intimate Partner Risk Assessment Instrument System (APRAIS) model of community risk assessment.

SAVE THE DATE

WHEN:

Thursday, November 15th, 2018

8:00am-5:00pm

*Friday, November 16th, 2018

8:00am-12:00pm

WHERE:

Red Lion Hotel
5500 Midland Rd
Billings, Montana

*Day 2 will include optional round table discussions focusing on implementation.

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED:

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Agenda available HERE

- * CLE, CEU, & POST credits applied for
- * Questions? Contact Kennedy Bahm
(406) 444-3905