Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear <<FirstName>> <<LastName>>:

We are writing to inform you of a data security incident experienced by Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics (“SIAM”) that may have affected your personal information. The privacy and security of your information is extremely important to us. That is why we are writing to inform you of this incident, to offer you complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services, and to provide you with information relating to steps that can be taken to help protect your information.

What Happened? SIAM recently learned that the security of the payment platform on its website, my.siam.org, may have been compromised. Upon discovering this incident, SIAM immediately launched an investigation and engaged an independent digital forensics firm to determine what happened and what information may have been accessed. On June 4, 2020 we learned that, as someone who made a purchase on our platform between February 13, 2020 and April 24, 2020, you may have had your payment card data accessed.

What Information Was Involved? The information involved in this incident may have included your name, address, payment card number, expiration date, and card verification value (CVV) number.

What Are We Doing? As soon as SIAM discovered the incident, we launched an investigation and took steps to stop any continued exposure of information, including notifying the credit card brands. We have also adopted enhanced security measures to prevent similar incidents in the future.

We are also providing you with information about steps that you can take to help protect your personal information. We have secured the services of ID Experts (<https://www.idexperts.com>) to provide identity monitoring at no cost to you for twelve (12) months. ID Experts is a leader in risk mitigation and response, and their team has extensive experience helping people who have sustained an unintentional exposure of confidential data. Your identity monitoring services include complimentary credit and CyberScan monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy, and fully managed identity theft recovery services at no cost to you.

What You Can Do: We strongly encourage you to enroll in the credit monitoring and identity monitoring services we are offering through ID Experts to protect your personal information. To enroll, please visit <https://app.myidcare.com/account-creation/protect> or call 1-800-939-4170 and use the enrollment code included above.

To receive credit services, you must be over the age of 18, have established credit in the U.S., have a Social Security number in your name, and have a U.S. residential address associated with your credit file.

Please note you must enroll by October 6, 2020. If you have questions or need assistance, please call ID Experts at 1-800-939-4170.

We also recommend that you:

- Close any potentially affected financial accounts;
- Review your account statements for discrepancies, and report any discrepancies to your bank;
- Place a fraud alert on your credit report; and
- Place a security freeze on your credit file.

For More Information: Further information about how to protect your personal information appears on the following page. If you have questions concerning this incident, please call 1-800-939-4170, Monday - Friday (excluding holidays), 9 a.m. - 9 p.m. EST.

We take your trust in us seriously, and we deeply regret any worry or inconvenience that this may cause you.

Sincerely,

Jim Crowley
Executive Director
Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO FURTHER PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting annualcreditreport.com/, calling toll-free 877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to:

Annual Credit Report Request Service

P.O. Box 105281
Atlanta, GA 30348

You can print this form at <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/cra/requestformfinal.pdf>. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least 90 days. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that creditors contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com.

Security Freeze: Under U.S. law, you have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state. Residents of Maryland, North Carolina, and Rhode Island can obtain more information from their Attorneys General using the contact information below.
