Dear Stata User:

StataCorp LLC is writing to supplement our September 21, 2018 notice regarding the September 18, 2018 incident that may have affected the security of some of your personal information. We continue to take this incident very seriously and write to include additional information about the incident and steps you can take to help protect your information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On September 18, 2018, StataCorp LLC discovered a Javascript code was placed in the footer of our shopping cart by an unauthorized individual. We immediately removed the code and launched an investigation. Our investigation determined the code was placed in the shopping cart on September 13, 2018 and remained until our removal on September 18, 2018. Although we remain unaware of any actual or attempted misuse of your information, we are providing you this supplemental notice out of an abundance of caution.

What Information Was Involved? Our investigation confirmed the information impacted by this incident may include your name, StataCorp account username and password, phone number, address, and credit card information.

What Are We Doing. Information privacy and security are among our highest priorities. We have strict security measures in place to protect information in our care. Upon learning of this incident, we quickly took steps to remove the unauthorized code, reset account passwords, and confirm the security of our system. In an abundance of caution, we are also notifying potentially affected individuals, including you, so that you may take further steps to best protect your personal information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

What Can You Do. We recommend you change your password or take other steps to protect your accounts for any other online accounts sharing your StataCorp credentials. You may also review the information contained in the enclosed "Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Information."

For More Information. If you have additional questions, please call us at (979) 696-4600. You may also write to us at service@stata.com or 4905 Lakeway Drive, College Station, TX 77845.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience this incident may cause you. StataCorp LLC remains committed to safeguarding information in our care and we will continue to take proactive steps to enhance the security of our systems.

Sincerely,

Pete Huckelba
Director of Computing Services

Steps You Can Take to Protect Against Identity Theft and Fraud

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your credit reports for suspicious activity. Under U.S. law you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

You have the right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a security freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a security freeze, please contact the major consumer reporting agencies listed below:

Experian PO Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com/freeze/center.html	TransUnion P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016 1-800-909-8872 www.transunion.com/credit-freeze	Equifax PO Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348-5788 1-800-685-1111 www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services

In order to request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below:

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, security freezes, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting the consumer reporting agencies, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General.

The Federal Trade Commission can be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.identitytheft.gov, 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
