Dear <<Name>>,

The University of Mary Washington ("UMW") is committed to protecting the confidentiality of the information entrusted to us. Regrettably, we are writing to inform you about an incident involving some of your information.

On January 5, 2016, UMW was informed by a university employee that an issued laptop computer was stolen while in transit. Upon learning this, UMW immediately began an investigation and determined that the laptop stored files containing your name, address, and Social Security number. The employee contacted law enforcement, but to date, law enforcement has been unable to locate the computer.

Although we have no indication that your information has been or will be misused, in an abundance of caution, we are offering you a complimentary one-year membership of Experian's® ProtectMyID® Alert. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection services focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. ProtectMyID Alert is completely free to you and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. Unfortunately, due to privacy laws, we are not able to enroll you directly. For more information on identity theft prevention and ProtectMyID Alert, including instructions on how to activate your complimentary one-year membership, please see the additional information provided in this letter.

We deeply regret any inconvenience this may cause you. To help prevent this from happening in the future, we have taken appropriate action with the involved employee and re-educating our staff on the importance of handling personal information securely. If you have any questions, please call 1-866-660-8608 Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. Eastern Time.

Sincerely,
