Notice of Data Breach
Please read this entire letter.

July __, 2020

Dear <<Individual Mailing Name>>,

We hope that you, your family and loved ones are doing as well as possible during these challenging times. As you likely know, cybersecurity-related incidents are on the rise and, out of an abundance of caution, we wanted to notify you that an unauthorized person recently accessed a limited number of Wealth Enhancement Group individual employees' email accounts.

Following our investigation, we have concluded that your specific nonpublic personal information may have been accessed by an unauthorized person as a result of this incident. We recognize the concern this may cause, and we want to inform you of the steps we have taken and provide you with information on steps you can take to further protect your personal information.

WHAT HAPPENED?

During our preliminary investigation, we learned that on March 22, 2020 an unauthorized person gained access to a limited number of employees' email accounts through a process called "phishing." Phishing occurs when a third-party bad actor is disguised to appear as though it is a known source requesting authorized access to user or email account information, such as a password. Because we have proactively invested in sophisticated cybersecurity technology and training, we were promptly alerted of the threat and took immediate action to secure the impacted email accounts. On June 11, 2020 we concluded our investigation and confirmed that you may have had nonpublic personal information affected by this incident.

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

After becoming aware of this incident, we took prompt action to secure the limited number of employees' individual email accounts to help ensure that the unauthorized person no longer had access. We also took additional steps to contain the situation, including engaging outside information security and technology experts to assist in our review and investigation of the incident. As part of this investigation, our information security and technology experts were engaged to determine what, if any, information may have been able to be accessed.

Because we want you to have maximum peace of mind, we are offering a complimentary 24-month credit monitoring and identity theft protection package through Experian IdentityWorksSM. To activate your membership and start monitoring your personal information please follow the steps found in Attachment 1 to this letter.

In addition to our existing security measures, we have reviewed and implemented additional options to enhance our technology and security practices to reduce the risk of a similar issue occurring in the future.

WHAT INFORMATION MAY HAVE BEEN INVOLVED?

The information that the unauthorized person may have been able to access may have included full name, address phone number, email address, social security number, driver's license number or state identification number, or financial account numbers.

WHAT YOU CAN DO.

In addition to using the credit monitoring and identity theft protection described in Attachment 1 of this letter, we recommend that you remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing your account statements and monitoring free credit reports to detect errors resulting from the security incident. Promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidents of identity theft to your financial institutions or company with which the account is maintained, as well as applicable authorities, including local law enforcement, your state attorney general and the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). Individuals also have the right to obtain a police report in the event one has been created for this incident.

Additionally, to minimize the risk of tax return fraud, the FTC and the IRS both generally recommend that individuals file their income taxes for each year as early as possible.

Please note that we will not email or call you regarding this incident to ask for your personal information. We suggest that you remain cautious when opening emails, clicking on links, responding to requests for entering network credentials, or giving personal information over the phone to anyone claiming to be from Wealth Enhancement Group.

FOR MORE INFORMATION.

We are strongly committed to protecting your personal information, and we apologize for any concern this situation has caused. For further information and assistance, please contact <<Advisor_Name>>, a member of the financial advisory team at Wealth Enhancement Group.

Sincerely,

SECURITY FREEZE & FRAUD ALERTS

You can obtain additional information from the FTC and national credit reporting agencies about placing a security freeze on your credit files and fraud alerts. You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least 90 days. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name.
